

Notes from the March 13, 2013 Board Meeting

Officers for 2013: Chair- Susan Murray. Secretary Mary Neathway. Treasurer: Lois Geiger

Goal: as per the annual meeting, the goal has been set as "To explore ways to become more visible in the community" What activities, events, efforts do you think we should take on to show the rest of the valley that we are alive, well and faith filled?

Thank you notes were received from the Clearwater Food Bank, Gift with Vision catalogue staff, and Yellowhead Pioneer Society.

Treasurer's report: Balance as of March 13: $119.50. This caused some to gulp, and others to pale. All bills, except advertising, have been paid up to the end of March. On April 1st, $160 will be needed for rent, and $2472.50 for the North Thompson Pastoral Charge commitment.

A bible study will begin after Easter. Time, place and topic will be announced

Rev. Krushel has been charged with the task of determining what the next steps would be for Clearwater United to become a shared ministry, on the same lines as Church of St Paul

Communion was discussed. Please let a board member or Rev. Krushel know your opinion on having communion twice monthly, perhaps the first and third Sundays.

The North Thompson Pastoral Charge has a website. If you are attached to the internet, please check out the Clearwater United page and let webmaster Leslie Ross know what you think, what you would add, delete or edit. The web address is <http://norththompsonpc.ca/>

Do you have any idea where the stable from the nativity set has gone? Please let Leslie Ross know. She usually stores it at her house and cannot find it.

April 5... you are invited to Joanne's basement for a time of creative play. Time to be announced.

April 6: Fiddle on the Roof performance in Kamloops

April 7: Pastoral Charge board meeting, Barriere, 1pm

