

Clearwater United News from the Pews

Spring, 2015

Hear Ye, Hear Ye

There will be a congregational meeting May 10, after church, to approve the wee changes made to the Shared Ministry Agreement. After months of meetings, praying, groaning and urging, the Anglican, United and Lutheran judicatories have all approved the agreement, with a few changes that we now must agree to. A formal signing ceremony is being planned for the fall.

Trumpet Vines and Canterbury Bells

Start digging. Gather your excess garden goodies. Our annual plant sale will take place at the church (in the basement) on May 23, beginning at 9a.m. Set up will be the evening before. Even if you have no plants to contribute, your help would be appreciated. The carrots beds may end up being planted at the same time.

Ding Dong

That's not Avon calling.

On June 10, United churches all over Canada will be ringing their bells to celebrate the 90th anniversary of the formation of the United Church. Our bell, now residing in Barriere, will be part of the noise making.

You are invited to attend and make a joyful noise, beginning at 10:30 a.m.

Picnic in the Park

The North Thompson Pastoral Charge annual picnic will be held June 28, the the Church of St. Paul, Barriere. Please bring a salad, dessert, other goodies, lawn chair, and perhaps a pal. Worship starts at 11 a.m with the pot luck lunch following.

For Whom the Bell Tolls

The bell tolls for you. Rev. Krushel will be away May 24, July 12, and all of August. Volunteers are needed to lead worship on those Sundays. Why not give it a try- you'll be speaking to an appreciative audience.

One Ringy Dingy

Did you know we have a church directory, listing names, addresses, phone numbers and email addresses of those in the pews? It's time for an update, so soon, someone will ask if you'd like to be included. It's a very handy resource for keeping in touch with the church family.

Pass the Noisemakers

Jingle the tamborine, blow the horns!
Carol Ross, dear mother to Leslie, will, like the United Church, turn 90 . Her birthday is May 10 and we wish her joy.

Others blowing out the candles include:

Leslie Ross- May 19;

Lorne Wright- June 8.

Susan Murray, Leslie Stirling- June 9

Jim Lewis- June 12

